2017-2019 Curator, San Francisco Center for New Music, www.centerfornewmusic.com
Curate and produce 6-10 concerts per year with guest artists and ensembles.

2012-pres. Artistic Director, Founder, & Conductor, the [Switch~ Ensemble]

A new music ensemble for the 21st Century, the [Switch~ Ensemble] began as the resident electroacoustic ensemble at the Eastman School of Music's Computer Music Center (ECMC). Dedicated to the creation and performance of new works for chamber ensemble, electronics, multimedia, and technology. Our 2016-2017 season included residencies at the University of Chicago, San Francisco Center for New Music, and Kent State University, as well as performances and recitals planned throughout the U.S. As Artistic Director, I oversee planning of artistic projects and residences, technical operations including audio/video recording, live-sound, electronics, multimedia, call for scores, selection of repertoire, commissions, pedagogical programs, fundraising, marketing, publicity and serve as conductor in performances of larger works. Recent highlights include ensemble-in-residence at the VIPA Festival in Spain, premiering 13 works by students, faculty, and guest composers, an artist residency at Avaloch Farms Music Institute, the CD release of our recording of Christopher Chandler's Smoke and Mirrors on the SEAMUS label, featured concerts on the MATA Interval Series, the New York City Electroacoustic Music Festival, the Queens New Music Festival (QNMF), and the Vanguard New Music Series. [Switch~] has enjoyed collaborations with composers Timothy McCormack, James Bean, Alican Camçi, Rand Steiger, Philippe Leroux, Stefan Prins, Wojtek Blecharz, Stylianos Dimou, Anna-Louise Walton, Bryan Jacobs, Panayiotis Kokoras, Igor Santos, and many others, including American premieres of works by Alexander Schubert, Santiago Diez-Fischer, and Lisa Streich. Upcoming projects include residencies at Cornell University, Ithaca College, Bard College, and Buffalo State University, and performances in San Francisco and NYC premiering new commissions from Matt Sargent, Adrien Trybucki, and Esaias Järnergard. www.switchensemble.com

REVIEWS

"Jason Thorpe Buchanan's Hunger, loosely based Knut Hamsun's novel, is a kind of training session in mental disintegration. Darcie Dennigan's libretto is elliptical... An ungodly opera needs ugly music, singers who produce primal sounds, an electric guitar that sounds scraped raw, a wailing orchestra effects, cuts the ear like a knife. Buchanan delivers."

- Mark Swed, Los Angeles Times (HUNGER, The Industry's FIRST TAKE '15 with wild Up)
- "an unearthly collage of sounds... though conceptually direct, the resulting sounds were delightfully ambiguous: frantic joy could be as easily heard as extreme distemperment."
- Daniel J. Kushner, New Music Box (Asymptotic Flux: First Study in Entropy, June in Buffalo)
- "The plain speaking poetry of Katherine Thorpe glittered in this setting, all sharp colors and piano notes like drops of water...shimmering."
- Adam Broner, Piedmont Post (Berlin Songs, 2nd Annual Melos Music Festival, San Francisco)
- "Rowdy and Raucous" Jacob Gotlib, ARTxFM (Double Concerto for Two Horns and Chamber Orchestra)

Jason Thorpe Buchanan is an American composer of operatic, orchestral, chamber, electroacoustic, and multimedia works. Artistic Director of the [Switch~ Ensemble], Curator for the San Francisco Center for New Music, and Full-Time Lecturer in Composition, Music Theory, and Electronic Music Composition at Mahidol University's College of Music in Thailand, his works have been described as "an unearthly collage of sounds", "sharply-edged", and "free jazz gone wrong". Commissioned and performed internationally by conductors, ensembles, and organizations such as Brad Lubman, James Baker, Alan Pierson, Jean-Philippe Wurtz, Jeffrey Means, Marc Lowenstein, Ulrich Pöhl, Alarm Will Sound (USA), Talea Ensemble (USA), Ensemble

Interface (DE), Ensemble Nikel (Israel), Ensemble Linea (FR), Insomnio Ensemble (NL), EXAUDI Vocal Ensemble (UK), Slagwerk Den Haag (Netherlands), Eklekto Percussion (Switzerland), Gaudeamus (NL), Mivos Quartet (USA), Iktus Percussion (USA), the [Switch~ Ensemble] (USA), The Industry, Royaumont Académie Voix Nouvelles Ensemble (FR), wild Up (USA), OSSIA (USA), Eastman Musica Nova Ensemble (USA), and Blue Water Chamber Orchestra (USA), Mizzou, International Horn Society, Tzlil Meudcan Festival (Tel Aviv), Chamber Music Campania (Italy), the German/American Fulbright-Kommission (DE), and the Eastman Musica Nova Ensemble, among others. One of five composers under 30 nominated for the 2015 Gaudeamus Prize, three works were presented by Insomnio, New European Ensemble, and Slagwerk Den Haag at Gaudeamus Muzickweek.

Scenes from his multimedia opera Hunger have received performances at Darmstadt (2014) with Ensemble Interface, The Industry's FIRST TAKE in L.A. (2015) with wild Up, and the MATA Interval Series in New York City (2015) with the [Switch~ Ensemble]. "Hunger is a kind of training session in mental disintegration... An ungodly opera needs ugly music, singers who produce primal sounds, an electric guitar that sounds scraped raw, a wailing orchestra effects, cuts the ear like a knife. Buchanan delivers." – L.A. Times

The first half of 2018 was spent as Artist-In-Residence at the Embassy of Foreign Artists in Geneva, Switzerland. Additional Honors and awards include a Fulbright Fellowship (2010-11) at the Hochschule für Musik und Theater in Hamburg (DE) as a visiting scholar, a fellowship and commissions from Royaumont Académie Voix Nouvelles (2016 & 2017), Artist-in-Residence USF Verftet/City Council of Bergen, Norway (2015), American-Scandinavian Foundation Grant (2015), a commission from the International Horn Society (2014) & ASCAP Morton Gould Award (2015) for Double Concerto (2014) written for the Eastman Musica Nova Ensemble with conductor Brad Lubman, an ASCAP Morton Gould Award (2014) & Howard Hanson Orchestral Prize (2014) for Asymptotic Flux: Second Study in Entropy (2013) commissioned by the Mizzou International Composers Festival for Alarm Will Sound, a commission from the Blue Water Chamber Orchestra as winner of Iron Composer (2014), and winner of newEar Composer's Competition.

Primary mentors have included Pierluigi Billone, Chaya Czernowin, Steven Takasugi, Raphaël Cendo, Ricardo Zohn-Muldoon, David Liptak, Virko Baley, Peter Michael Hamel, Jorge Villavicencio Grossmann, and Georges Aperghis, among others. Jason has served for three years as Executive Director of the Valencia International Performance Academy & Festival (Spain), and as course instructor in electronic music and composition, board member of OSSIA, and assistant conductor for the Musica Nova Ensemble with Brad Lubman as a Ph.D. candidate at the Eastman School of Music. As a guest composer, curator, technical mentor, and teacher, he has additionally worked with Chamber Music Campania (Italy), VIPA Festival (Spain), the University of Virginia, Stanford University, San Jose State University, the University of Nevada, Las Vegas, Queens New Music Festival, MATA, Portland State University, University of Richmond, University of North Carolina at Greensboro, Michigan State University, the Bergen Center for Elektronisk Kunst (BEK) in Norway, and at the University of Chicago in a residency with the [Świtch~] Ensemble (2017). He holds degrees in Composition and Music Technology from San José State University and the University of Nevada, Las Vegas, where he taught courses in composition and theory (2008-2010). Current projects include the multimedia opera Hunger with libretto by award-winning poet Darcie Dennigan, and commissions from the Royaumont Académie Voix Nouvelles Ensemble (France, Sep. 2017), the Earle Brown Music Foundation for the Talea Ensemble & Time Spans Festival (NYC, Aug.2017), and a quintet for the FÜNF+FÜNF Contrabass Clarinet & Percussion Festival in Berlin (Germany, 2018). www.jasonthorpebuchanan.com
